COALITION BUILDING

Following a whirlwind year filled with change, GLAHR, alongside Advancement Project and Women on the Rise, started this year by fighting ill legislation, like the proposed SB 202, limiting voters’ ability to vote via absentee ballot. GLAHR was able to participate in 56 calls and demonstrations.
Partnering with Women on the Rise and the #CloseTheJail coalition, we advocated for the closure of the Atlanta City Detention Center (ACDC); participating in 35 events including, the city of Atlanta Commissioners meetings, leaving public comments, and demonstrations in front of Atlanta Mayor's office.
January, 2021 marked the End of the 287g program in both Cobb and Gwinnett by people’s power. The end of this program gave the immigrant community room to breathe, knowing they will not continue to be targeted.

GLAHR, in collaboration with Project South, Georgia Detention Watch, South Georgia Immigrant Support Network, Detention Watch Network, and Mijente, were able to Shut down Irwin Detention Center.
GLAHR partnered with Mijente on the “Eyes on ICE” campaign, which launched on the 1st of March.

The campaign centered around the impact the 287g program had on immigrants.

GLAHR was able to participate in several webinars and were successful in garnering the attention of the Department of Homeland Security.
"EYES ON ATLANTA"
For over a year, GLAHR participated with Just Futures Law and Mijente to investigate how local police departments frequently share information with ICE. In June of this year, we were able to release the “Eyes on Atlanta: How Tech Companies, Law Enforcement, and Local Residents Work Together to Power ICE.”

In This Report:

7 Automatic License Plate Readers (ALPRs)
9 Video Surveillance & Facial Recognition Technology
12 ICE Collaboration Beyond 287(g): Law Enforcement Data Sharing in Atlanta, Cobb and Gwinnett Counties
14 Policy Recommendations
16 Acknowledgements

III. ICE Collaboration Beyond 287(g): Law Enforcement Data Sharing in Atlanta, Cobb, and Gwinnett Counties
In collaboration with Women on The Rise, GLAHR participated on the City Council races to inform the community of the importance of the election and its impact on the black and brown communities. GLAHR reached over 15,600 individuals while canvassing black and brown communities in the City of Atlanta, inviting communities of color to GOTV.
GLAHR participated on press conferences and outreach activities under the campaign #CommunitiesOverCages and #VoteATL.
GLAHR and its GOTV initiative canvassed all Districts of the City of Atlanta, calling voters to mobilize for elections on November 2nd, 2021.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
As the number of COVID cases increased within the Latinx communities, we launched the campaign "NO PASES LA TOS, PASA LA VOZ". GLAHR mobilized into communities to raise awareness about its effects and safety preventive measures. We visited eight community-owned stores and three churches with our reaching over 1340 individuals.
GLAHR launched a new youth initiative known as “The BLOCK.” The BLOCK organized its first booth camps in Tifton, GA. In the following months were able organize trainings in Americus, Albany, and Atlanta, more than 90 youth attended from rural and urban communities to this first round of events.
LEADERSHIP TRAINING:

10TH ASAMBLEA POPULAR

GLAHR was able to host their yearly Asamblea Popular, where more than 240 members gather for a two-day training event. They are updated about policy changes, events and attend workshops.
The GLAHR held a total of 43 weekly community meetings, 23 of which were combining digital resources and in person, following Covid-19 safety protocols.
GLAHR launched the South Carolina Collective, outreaching communities in Ridgeville, Hardeeville—shared information regarding our ICE Free Zone and “No pases la Tos, Pasa la Voz” campaigns. We were able to reach 250 community members.
ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT CAPACITY BUILDING

During 2021 GLAHR staff participated in 118 workshops centered around Civic Engagement, Mobilizing and Organizing workshop for core members and organizers, Redistricting, Criminal Justice classes, Accounting Fundamentals, Quickbooks, Management, Immigration Policies, Combating Digital Misinformation, Human Rights of Indigenous and AfroMexican Communities, Digital Dragnets (ICE/ Police Data Exchange).

Seven Mindfulness and Compassion webinars for women on staff and one Toxic Masculinity workshop for men. Including six SpadeWork training for community organizers and seven Mijente fellowship training.

GLAHR staff was able to have two exchange experiences in Phoenix and Tucson with District 8 and Ward 1 representatives.
GLAHR is expanding, hiring seven individuals to fill the positions of Finance and Operations Manager, Community Radio Manager, Communications Coordinator, Arts, and Creative Coordinator, Community Counsel, South Georgia Community Organizer, and Community Organizer.
GLAHR's hotline has been one of the primary sources of communication between the organization and the community. It allows us to see what affects the community while providing services and guiding them regarding their next steps. In 2021, GLAHR connected with over 1,200 individuals and referred more than 300 persons to lawyers, counselors, and services.
GLAHR is the host of the Georgia Immigration Bond Fund. Within this year, we were able to provide support to 15 families whose loved ones were in a Georgia or Louisiana Detention Center. These bonds vary from $7,000 to $17,000.
As a result of national forums held across the country, GLAHR-Mijente was able to bring Him home, a long-time community organizer, who fought alongside GLAHR to put an end to the targeting of the immigrant community. Juan was detained and deported after being stopped for driving without a license, now he is home with his loved ones.
GLAHR JOVENES

GLAHR Jovenes met virtually 26 times and had three in-person meetings to incorporate the Mexican tradition of sugar skull making to honor “El día de Muertos.” The jovenes were joined by special guest and musical artist Ronin Gray to talk about his experience as a Chicano actor, producer, and teamster navigating the movie and music industries.

This year GLAHR jovenes were able to have their first book club, consisting of 7 meetings where they discussed “Bless Me Ultima” by Rudolfo Anaya.
GLAHR mobilized community members to demand #CommunitiesNotCages #FreeThemAll and the #StopDeportations in front of the ICE field office in Atlanta.

GLAHR, Project South, Georgia Detention Watch, and South Georgia Immigrant Support Network, continued pushing for the complete #ShutDownIrwin and resulted victorious when ICE ended its contract with Irwin County Detention Center in May.

GLAHR joined efforts to support to our trans and we demanded city council #CloseTheJailATL and put #CommunitiesOverCages.

GLAHR participated on calls to action to senators and house representatives to vote No to #HB289, #NoSB202, and #NoHB531. Unfortunately SB202

GLAHR was able to hold and participate in 12 mobilizations and calls to action, including the launch of the #VOTEATL campaign.
GLAHR was able to hire two individuals to fill the positions of Community Radio Manager and Communications Coordinator. The team attended 12 workshops that ranged from how to deal with social media disinformation, to operating the radio. Throughout Facebook, Instagram and Twitter GLAHR has been able to organically reach 904,668 individuals. Posts include the End of the 287g program, calls to action, that included: #ShutDownICDC, #CloseTheJailATL, #CommunitiesNotCages, #ProtectTheVote, and alerting the community of the dangers of #SB202, educating on policies and legislations that may affect when it comes to voting.
There have been 44 programs to inform the radio listeners about new labor policies affecting the immigrant community.

Radio Migrante was able to hold 336 digital shows captivating an audience of 370,789 individuals via Facebook and Youtube.

The GLAHRiadorxs had the opportunity to hold 47 programs that were held by the staff, including topics like the elections, immigration policies and updates.

We've had the opportunity on Fridays to be joined by Chicago based organizer Jorge Mujica with Arise Chicago with a segment known as "Chambeando".

There have been 44 programs to inform the radio listeners about new labor policies affecting the immigrant community.
Although we were limited to meeting virtually for a greater amount of the year, we found the ability to come together before “El Dia de los Muertos” to create ‘Catrinas y Catrines’; the elegant skull. GLAHR Jovenes, our youth held workshops to create and decorate “Calaveritas” or sugar skulls. Both the catrinas and calaveras were “ofrendas”-- offerings-- done to put on the altar as a way to commemorate our loved ones that have passed away.

At GLAHR’s yearly Asamblea Popular the members were able to create “Calaveras Literarias”; skull literature with subjects such; separation of families, 287g, ICE detainers, Covid, and were able to be transformed into visual representations via piñatas.
END OF THE YEAR 2021

NENENQUI CELEBRATION

GLAHR held its 20-year celebration, honoring the “Nenenqui’s” who have walked with us since the beginning. A Nenenqui, a traveler, in Nahuatl is one who has walked alongside GLAHR in its fight for immigrant justice.
